PERSONAL

Dear Allen:

I didn't get to speak to you last night, but I wanted to take this occasion to tell you how much I enjoyed your remarks. They were right on the ball, very stimulating, and I am sure they will be productive of good results so far as the purpose of that meeting is concerned.

As perhaps you know, I am scheduled to go to Germany next week in connection with the Crusade for Freedom in my capacity as Chairman of the Federal group. If you have any ideas or suggestions to help make the trip more productive, I shall be delighted to receive them.

Sincerely yours,

WALTER WILLIAMS

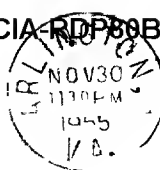

Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Mr. Dulles:

 I called Mr. Williams' secretary to ask if Mr. Williams was still in the city, and to explain to her that this letter had been mis-routed and was therefore late in reaching you. She said that Mr. Williams trip had been cancelled and that he will therefore be in his office should you wish to reach him there at any time.
